PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. Once again the Chair will inquire if you have all voted. Clerk will record.

CLERK: Roll call vote read. 41 ayes, no nays, 8 not voting.

PRESIDENT: Bill is passed with the emergency clause attached. Chair is pleased to introduce today 9 Future Homemakers of America, girl students who are seated in the South Balcony. They're from Senator DeCamp's area. They come from the Elkhorn Valley School in Tilden, Nebraska. Their leader is Barbara Nelson and we're delighted to have you here today to observe some rather historic actions here by the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. Now the Chair would like to call to your attention some things so that we can sort of wind up today. First off I have a motion up here to adjourn, but before we can do that, in order to not get involved in some technical difficulties, I'm going to have to ask your indulgence to help me regarding the 36 bills that are on select file. I know that that's routine and so on, however, if you could just hold on until I get those moved across, you will facilitate the movement up here and the free flow of the legislative activities. Now then, we're ready for the consideration of the bills on select file. The Chair recognizes Senator Cavanaugh.
